While in most classes your absence affects only your own personal learning situation, an absence from Wind Ensemble, or any "team" situation, affects all the members of the ensemble. Each and every one of you is an important and integral part of this group. All the parts whether melodic, harmonic, or rhythmic, significantly contribute to the Wind Ensemble.

A single instrument's absence changes balances, dynamics, and the overall sound of the group. Unexcused absences from rehearsals cannot occur if we are to have a successful ensemble. Your grade will have direct correlation not only with your improvement, but also with your attendance. Any unexcused absence from rehearsal will result in a grade lowering, and any unexcused absence from the dress rehearsal or performance will result in an automatic failure. Lateness for rehearsals will count as half an absence, thus two times being late will result in a grade lowering. Lateness for dress rehearsals or concerts will result in at least an automatic grade lowering, with a further reduction possible, depending upon the severity of the lateness.

In cases of conflicts with other school activities or emergency situations, a note from an appropriate authority, such as a teacher or a doctor explaining your absence, immediately following each instance, may be accepted.

Thank you in advance for your cooperation and I look forward to a rewarding and exciting year.
